Why Do We Need Paid Family Leave?

Paid Family Leave is an insurance benefit that provides job-protected, paid leave for employees. Employers can easily provide PFL for their employees, at no direct cost to them.

Why is Paid Family Leave so important?

- Employees struggle to maintain their jobs while caring for family in a specific time of need
- Pressures can impact job performance and the workplace
- Paid leave increases likelihood employees return to work, resulting in higher retention and lower costs for employers

Employees have a right to paid time off and:

- Job protection – an employee must be returned to the same or comparable position after taking PFL.

- Health insurance continued while on leave on the same terms as if the employee had continued to work.
  - Employees continue paying their share, if any.

- Protection from discrimination and retaliation for requesting or taking Paid Family Leave.
How Much Do Employees Pay?

- The current payroll contribution is 0.153% of an employee’s gross wages each pay period, capped at an annual maximum of $107.97.
- For 2020, the payroll contribution is 0.270% of an employee’s gross wages each pay period, capped at an annual maximum of $196.72.
- If an employee earns less than the New York State Average Weekly Wage, their annual contribution will be less than the cap.
How Do Employees Request Leave?

NOTIFY EMPLOYER: At least 30 days before start of leave, if foreseeable or as soon as possible

OBTAIN
Obtain forms from the employer, employer's carrier, or from the PFL website

COMPLETE & ATTACH
Complete form package and attach required supporting documents

SUBMIT
Submit to the employer’s insurance carrier within 30 days of starting leave to avoid losing benefits

Employee Eligibility
Who is Eligible?

Employees who work for covered employers are eligible if they:

■ Regularly work 20 or more hours per week
  ■ After 26 consecutive weeks of employment with the same employer
■ Regularly work fewer than 20 hours per week
  ■ For 175 days with the same employer

Citizenship and/or immigration status is not a factor in eligibility
Can Employees Waive Coverage?

Employees qualify for a waiver if they:

- Regularly work 20 or more hours per week but won’t be in employment with that employer for 26 consecutive weeks or
- Regularly work fewer than 20 hours and won’t work 175 days in a 52-week period

Employers must provide a waiver to those who qualify

Waivers are available at ny.gov/PaidFamilyLeave

- Employees who file a waiver will be ineligible for benefits and exempt from making contributions

What about Paid Family Leave and Other Types of Leave?

- Short-term disability: Employees cannot collect disability and Paid Family Leave benefits during the same period of time.

- Workers’ Compensation: Employees cannot collect Paid Family Leave benefits while collecting Workers’ Compensation for a total disability.
  - Employees on a reduced earnings schedule may be eligible for benefits.
Employers are responsible for:

1. Securing PFL coverage for their employees and paying for the premium with funds collected from employee payroll deductions

2. Providing information about Paid Family Leave to their employees

3. Providing wage information to the carrier when an employee requests Paid Family Leave
Opting In Considerations for Public Employers

The process for a public employer to opt in to Paid Family Leave is easy. Before you opt in, consider:

1. Which employees will you provide coverage for and when will your coverage begin?
2. How will Paid Family Leave interact with your existing benefits?
3. How will you obtain coverage?

Helpline: (844) 337-6303  Website: PaidFamilyLeave.ny.gov
Which Employees Will You Cover?

- Non-represented employees
  - Can begin coverage and payroll deductions as soon as the employer provides notice at least 90 days prior

- Represented (Union) Employees
  - Must agree to Paid Family Leave coverage through collective bargaining
  - Labor union may negotiate with a public employer for Paid Family Leave benefits at least as favorable as those mandated by statute

How Will Paid Family Leave Interact with Your Existing Benefits?

Public Employers should also consider the following:

- Do you have existing leave benefits?
- How will Paid Family Leave interact with accrued leave, if applicable?
- Will you provide service (retirement) credit while an employee is on Paid Family Leave?
Obtaining Paid Family Leave Coverage

Public employers can obtain Paid Family Leave insurance coverage by:

- Including Paid Family Leave benefits through a rider on an existing disability benefits policy
- Purchasing a stand-alone Paid Family Leave insurance policy
- Self-insuring for Paid Family Leave
  - Only for employers who self-insure for Disability Benefits or opt in only for PFL

Notify the Workers’ Compensation Board

Once you have obtained coverage, you must notify the Workers’ Compensation Board of your decision to opt into Paid Family Leave.

In order to notify the Board, you must submit one of the following forms to the Plans Acceptance Unit (pau@wcb.ny.gov):

- Employer’s Application for Voluntary Coverage (No Employee Contribution) – Form PFL-135
- Employer’s Application for Voluntary Coverage (Employee Contribution Required) – Form PFL-136
In the first year, over 128,000 New Yorkers took Paid Family Leave!
