Why do we need Paid Family Leave?
Why do we need Paid Family Leave?

1. Employees struggle to choose between maintaining a job and caring for loved ones.

2. Employees face the stress of weeks of lost wages.

3. Employees fear losing their jobs.
In April 2016, New York State enacted the nation’s strongest and most comprehensive Paid Family Leave policy into law.

- Paid Family Leave is employee-funded insurance that helps workers be there for their family when they’re most needed.

- Workers no longer have to choose between caring for their loved ones and their jobs.
Paid Family Leave basics

Provides paid time off and job protection so you can:

- Bond with a new child
- Care for a family member with a serious health condition
- Assist loved ones when a spouse, domestic partner, child, or parent is deployed abroad
Paid Family Leave & COVID-19

New! Care for yourself or your minor dependent child when you are under an order of quarantine or isolation due to COVID-19.
Your rights and protections

Paid time off and:

- Job protection
- Continued health insurance while on leave, on the same terms as if you had continued to work
- Protection from discrimination and retaliation for requesting or taking Paid Family Leave
Basic uses of Paid Family Leave
Bonding with a child

Employee eligibility
Who is covered?

- Most employees who work for private employers
- If you work for a public employer, your employer may opt in
- If you’re a public employee represented by a union, you may be covered if Paid Family Leave is collectively bargained
Who is eligible?

Employees who work for covered employers are eligible if you:

- Regularly work 20 or more hours per week
  - After 26 consecutive weeks of employment with the same employer

- Regularly work fewer than 20 hours per week
  - For 175 days with the same employer

Citizenship and/or immigration status is not a factor in eligibility.
Who is eligible?

- NEW! Domestic workers
  - Effective January 1, 2022
  - Covered for disability benefits and Paid Family Leave if employee is working 20 or more hours per week for the private homeowner
  - Eligible once in employment for 26 consecutive weeks
Can you waive coverage?

You can only waive coverage if you:

- Regularly work 20 or more hours per week but won’t be in employment with your employer for 26 consecutive weeks; or
- Regularly work fewer than 20 hours per week and won’t work 175 days in a 52-week period

Employers must provide a waiver form to all employees who qualify. Employees who properly file a waiver will be ineligible for benefits and exempt from making contributions.
Taking Paid Family Leave
How to request leave

Step 1
Notify your employer

Step 2
Complete the request forms

Step 3
Send forms to the insurance carrier

Notify your employer at least 30 days before the start of your leave if foreseeable, or as soon as possible. Insurers must pay or deny the request within 18 days of receiving a completed request, or the first day of leave, whichever is later.
Getting request forms

You can get Paid Family Leave request forms from:

- Your employer
- Your employer’s insurance carrier
- PaidFamilyLeave.ny.gov/forms
Handling disputes

- If your claim is denied, or you have another claim-related dispute, you may request arbitration.

- Arbitration for Paid Family Leave is handled by NAM (National Arbitration and Mediation) nyspfla.namadr.com
Protection from discrimination

If your employer:

- does not reinstate you to the same or comparable position,
- terminates you,
- reduces your pay and/or benefits, or
- disciplines you in any way for requesting or taking Paid Family Leave, you can file a discrimination claim with the Workers’ Compensation Board.
Paid Family Leave & FMLA
How are Paid Family Leave and FMLA similar?

Both Paid Family Leave and the Family and Medical Leave Act provide:

- Leave for:
  - bonding with a child
  - caring for a family member with a serious health condition
  - assisting when a family member is called to active military service abroad

- Job protection

- Continued health insurance during leave on the same terms as if you had continued to work
